

I urge you to keep the rules of media ownership as they are now. To allow one corporation to own more than one outlet in a community will cut off access of information that is needed for a healthy democracy. The airwaves should be protected for the common good even more stringently than they are now. Each broadcaster should be held responsible for serving the public interest. Thank you.